Dear Friends,

Thank you for sharing your time, talent and financial resources in 2014.
Your substantial and unwavering support allowed the Women’s Bar Foundation to provide pro bono legal assistance to nearly 2,000 low-income residents of the Commonwealth – the majority of whom are women with children.
Your generosity resulted in ending the cycle of domestic abuse, preventing homelessness, providing counsel to incarcerated and homeless women and securing end-of-life documents for seniors.

The accomplishments highlighted in this 2014 Annual Report are your accomplishments. It is because of you, our most stalwart champions and financial contributors, that the organization has impacted the lives of so many.

We welcome you to visit www.womensbar.org to sign up to receive Noteworthy, our quarterly e-newsletter. You may also view a complete donor and volunteer list on the website.

With your ongoing commitment to our mission, we will continue to make the difference for the nearly 2,000 clients we serve each year. Thank you for making this work possible.

Kristy L. Nardone, President
Patricia E. Comfort, Executive Director

Become a Volunteer
Participating as a volunteer attorney or volunteer mentor in one of the WBF’s pro bono projects is rewarding, challenging, educational and inspiring.
As a volunteer attorney, you will receive comprehensive training in an area of law you may not otherwise have the opportunity to learn and you will also provide critical services to low-income individuals and their families who have nowhere else to turn. As a volunteer mentor, you will provide invaluable guidance for the volunteer attorneys which, in turn, has a positive impact on the outcome for our clients. To volunteer, please contact Rachel Biscardi via email at rbiscardi@womensbar.org or by telephone at 617.973.6666.

Become a Contributor
The Women’s Bar Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) organization, dedicated to providing pro bono legal services to low-income individuals, primarily women and children. We are funded exclusively through the generosity of foundation grants, law firms, corporations and individual donors. Every donation makes a measurable and lasting difference in the lives of our clients. All contributions to the Women’s Bar Foundation are fully tax deductible. To make a contribution, visit us online at www.womensbar.org/WBF, or send a check to:

Women’s Bar Foundation, 27 School Street, Suite 500, Boston, MA 02108

Thank You!

The Elder Law Project (ELP) fielded 121 calls to its intake line and referred 46 low-income seniors to a volunteer attorney. The ELP staff conducted 8 senior site visits this year—the highest number in the Project’s history.

The Hampden & Hampshire Housing Court Project assisted more than 250 low-income tenants facing eviction from their homes.

The Family Law Project for Battered Women (FLP) fielded 1660 calls to its intake line; conducted an intake evaluation with 404 of those callers; referred 128 clients for full representation by a volunteer attorney and provided brief service and counsel to 276 clients.

The Framingham Project for Incarcerated Women operates at MCI-Framingham and South Bay House of Correction in Suffolk County, and at Kingston House, a post-release program in Boston. The Framingham Project held 11 educational seminars reaching approximately 100 women.

The Women’s Lunch Place Project provides volunteer attorneys to staff a weekly clinic for the guests of The Women’s Lunch Place, a day shelter for homeless women in Boston. Clinic topics include Social Security benefits, criminal procedure, consumer law, immigration, new CORI laws, and housing. Our volunteer attorneys counseled approximately 120 guests during their on-site visits.
